Property Description

This tropical modern home features a great room directly connected with an indoor terrace area that leads to a spacious deck equipped with a sparkling pool. The kitchen has a large island and separate pantry, there is also a powder room you can access from the pool area and a separate office space within the home. Two of the bedrooms are in a separate apartment complex with their own bathroom, a common kitchenette, and a lounge area. Blending the lines of simplicity and elegance, Model Home D features a beautiful open home space, with a clean and contemporary styling. Within moments of walking through the door, you'll find an open floor plan, a modern feel, and windows spanning from floor-to-ceiling that immediately take you to the outdoor patio and pool. The direct connection from the main door to the deck area generates a feeling of openness inside this home, which is still present when you reach the separate apartment complex on the exterior.
