Property Description

Vistas del Mar is located in the hills above Torito where you can see almost the entire bay of Playa Samara, as well as a partial view of Carrillo Beach and the surrounding mountains. The property is made up of a large flat surface with some hills which can be into terraces to take advantage of the view, and at its lowest part, there is a small field which can also be used as a construction platform. The topography of the land is perfect for development of various types of housing projects such as condominiums or a couple of luxury homes. This property has access to basic services (water and electricity) plus two different access roads both crossing the community of Torito. Just two kilometers from downtown Samara and all its amenities, this is a unique investment opportunity that you should not miss.
