Property Description

It's not everyday you can buy a business AND the building in which it operates, but you can with this one. This authentic French bakery was built and opened just before the pandemic and has grown into a profitable and popular local spot. Located on one of Samara's main streets, at the start of one of it's most popular neighborhoods, this thriving business is situated perfectly for continued growth. All of the commercial kitchen equipment was specially imported from Europe and offers exceptional quality, unmatched in the region, plus there's a trained team in place. This is a unique business opportunity you'll want to seize today!!
